Sh Ajay Chaudhry, IPS
Special Commissioner / TMD (Zone II)

Dear Delhites,

I begin by expressing my heartfelt gratitude to Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi for giving a tremendous boost to our Road Safety endeavours by her 'Helmet Wearing Consequences' campaign and giving a clarion call to Delhites to "pledge to follow Road Safety rules."

I also extend my sincere gratitude to the Hon'ble Commissioner of Police, Sh. Satish Golcha, IPS, for reinvigorating the Traffic Police personnel with his vision of safe, orderly, and congestion-free traffic and advancing our mission of Zero Deaths on Roads.

My profound appreciation also goes to traffic police personnel who worked tirelessly to ensure safe and smooth conduct of our 79th Independence Day celebrations. From enforcing traffic restrictions to managing vehicle checks, directing labelled vehicles to designated parking, and handling the aftermath of rain-induced road damage and waterlogging—our team rose to the occasion admirably.

Delhi Traffic Police also embraced the spirit of Independence Day with patriotic zeal through our 'Har Ghar Tiranga' campaign. Bike rallies, walkathons with school children, tricolor-themed events, patriotic singing, painting competitions in schools focusing on Independence Day and Road safety as theme, and the distribution of flags at public places, all contributed to a festive and united atmosphere.

A special word of thanks to our Delhi Police women personnel who tied rakhis to traffic violators as a gentle yet powerful reminder to follow traffic rules.

I am also truly appreciative to the citizens of Delhi for cooperating with traffic restrictions and responding positively to our advisories. Many of you appreciated our efforts on social media, and we are grateful for your support.

Our Traffic Praharis deserve special mention for continuing to report violations responsibly. Now, I urge every Delhite to become a Prahari—our eyes and ears on the road. Report not just traffic violations, but any suspicious activity. Your identity will be protected.

Together, let us make Delhi safer and more disciplined. A crime-free, rule-abiding city must be our collective mission.

Jai Hind!

- ◆ Unveiled on the eve of Independence Day, the campaign saw Hon'ble Chief Minister urging all citizens to take a "pledge to follow road safety rules, wear helmets and keep our city clean."
- ◆ Buoyed by the proactive campaign, Delhi Traffic Police intensified their helmet drive across the city. Officers began stopping two-wheelers on the roads to check on and advise riders and pillion passengers to wear ISI 4151-marked helmets and ensure their proper strapping and claspings. Helmet checks were recently conducted at locations including Singhu Border, Loni Roundabout, outside Max Hospital, I.P. Extension, Rohtak Road, Punjabi Bagh, Bhai Veer Singh Marg etc.
- ◆ The fact that 77,447 riders and pillion passengers were challaned in July 2025 for riding without helmets is a serious cause for concern.

Spreading awareness on the roads

- Armed with placards, public announcement systems, and a mission to achieve Zero Death on Roads, Delhi Traffic Police personnel stood daily at roadsides and hospitals -- despite intermittent rains and uncomfortable humid weather -- to promote awareness on traffic rules, road safety, no honking near hospitals and schools, and responsible driving behavior.
- The exercise ensured that over a thousand drivers were sensitized within a few hours every day, per venue.
- A few lucky drivers who were found to be complying with wearing proper helmets, seat belts etc were given gifts like key rings as tokens of appreciation by Delhi Police

- In July - August, drivers were sensitized at Narela intersection, Civil Lines, Raja Harish Chander Hospital intersection, Barafkhana, Sadar Bazar, Pandara Road, Zakir Hussain Road, Shakti Nagar Chowk, Shanti Van Chowk, Nirman Vihar, Safdarjung Madrassa intersection etc.

"I am happy with the intervention of Delhi Traffic Police at intersections. Drivers often ignore traffic rules and turn aggressive when others point out their transgressions, so repeated reminders about good on-road behaviour is a welcome step", Mohun, DTC bus driver.

Raising awareness among Auto Drivers

- Delhi Traffic Police sensitized over 2000 Auto Drivers on Road safety in the month of July - August.

- Prominent areas where drives were carried out include : Kashmiri Gate, AIIMS Hospital Pre-paid TSR booth, Anand Vihar, Rajiv Chowk Metro Station, Jor Bagh Metro Station, Moti Bagh, Gagan Cinema, Mother Dairy East Delhi, Mayapuri Chowk, TT Park BKS etc.

➤ Auto Drivers are instructed among other things to :

- Never Drink & Drive
- Drive in their designated left lane of the road.
- Drop and pick up passengers from left side of the road, and never stop mid-road.
- Behave politely with passengers, especially ladies.
- Wear their uniforms and shoes while on driving duty
- Never jump Red Light. etc.

Spreading awareness about 'No Honking' zones

- Unnecessary and continuous honking is a widespread issue that Delhi Traffic Police is working to reduce. Many drivers ignore 'No Honking Zone' signs --represented by a horn symbol crossed out within a red circle--contributing to noise pollution and harming sensitive groups. To combat this, regular awareness campaigns are being conducted.
- Typically roads around hospitals, schools and colleges, courts, some residential areas and certain stretches of roads are designated as 'No Honking' zones.
- To raise awareness about 'No Honking' zones, Delhi Traffic Police personnel continually hold campaigns every month. In July '25, 'No Honking' campaigns were conducted at several locations including AIIMS Hospital gate, GTB Hospital gate, Lady Hardinge Medical College, Bara Hindu Rao Hospital etc.
- Honking in 'No Honking' zones results in challans/ fines. In July '25 itself 31 drivers were challaned for honking in No Honking / Silent zones.
- 190 drivers were challaned for using pressure horns.
- Apart from honking, being excessively loud and causing noise pollution too results in challans – 15 drivers were fined for playing loud music in their vehicles, while 5 drivers were challaned for playing music.

Raising awareness among DTC Bus Drivers

- Delhi Traffic Police carried out a massive Road Safety awareness campaign among DTC bus drivers in July - August '25.
- Prominent depots where Delhi Traffic Police personnel from Road safety Cell conducted the drives include: Nand Nagari DTC Training School, Rajghat Depot, Peeragarhi, Gazipur, Okhla, Kalkaji Electric Depot, SBPI Wazirpur, Mayapuri, East Vinod Nagar, Nehru Place, Hari Nagar, Noida, BBM Kingsway etc.
- Bus Drivers were instructed about :
 - Guidelines of Hon'ble Supreme Court.
 - Mission Zero Death on Roads.
 - Refraining from using mobile phones while driving.
 - Keeping the doors closed when bus is in motion to prevent accidents.
 - Driving within the permitted speed limit of 40 kmph.
 - Carrying passengers as per the prescribed seating/ standing capacity of the bus.
 - Behaving courteously with passengers, especially senior citizens and women

SPOTLIGHT :

SI Ajay Kumar Tomar

- An ace Road Safety Awareness instructor since the past six years, SI Ajay Kumar Tomar vouches that there “is a massive positive impact of Road Safety education that Delhi Traffic Police personnel have been painstakingly spreading among vehicle, bus, taxi, auto and other drivers, besides students, two wheeler riders and passengers etc.”
- SI Ajay’s area of operation includes East, North East and Shahdara districts of Delhi. He can be seen in these areas everyday be it rain or shine.
- From giving lectures in schools, colleges, DTC depots and amid taxi and auto booths, to affixing red reflective tapes on bicycles on the roads, to imploring people not to honk horns in No Honking zones, to conducting quizzes and contests on Road safety, SI Ajay performs all duties flawlessly
- SI Ajay strongly contends that “at least one chapter on Road safety should be included in the school syllabus from primary level itself.”

- A 2003 Delhi Police recruit, HC Sachin Kumar joined the Traffic Division in 2018.
- Tasked with spreading awareness to the general public, school and college students, bus, truck, taxi and auto drivers in the area spreading from Narela to ITO, HC Sachin Kumar is “very happy” that he is able to make a difference by spreading awareness about Traffic rules and Road safety.

Delhi Traffic Police instructors held an impactful interactive session in our school. We teachers and students learnt a lot, including :

- ◆ ISI 4151 marked Helmets are a must for both riders and pillion riders of two wheelers. Two wheelers are for two riders only.
- ◆ Pedestrians should cross roads at zebra crossings, or use foot overbridges or subways.
- ◆ Pedestrians should walk on footpaths or extreme left side of road facing oncoming traffic.

Delhi Traffic Police personnel affixed Red reflective tape on my cycle for my safety and gave many instructions including :

- ◆ Ride at the left side of the roads, using dedicated cycle lanes wherever they are present.
- ◆ Avoid riding cycles on Flyovers, Highways and busy Expressways.
- ◆ Follow traffic signs. Etc

RETIREEES OF JULY & AUGUST ' 25

◆ “It is often said that retirement is like a blank sheet of paper. You can redesign your life hereafter and write anything you want to or dream about. You all are enriched with invaluable experience from Delhi Police. Take it further and do well for yourselves and the society”, Addl CP/ T/ HQ Sh Satya Vir Katara, (IPS), and DCsP HQ Sh Shashank Jaiswal (IPS) and Sh. S K Singh, (IPS), (T- 1 & T2 respectively) exhorted the eight retirees of August ‘25 at a warm farewell function held at the Todapur Headquarters of Delhi Traffic Police.

◆ The eight retirees included Insp (Min.) Shamma Devi, SI (Exe) Lekh Raj, SI (Exe) Ramesh Kumar, SI (Exe) Sukhbir Singh, SI (Exe) Attar Singh, SI (Exe) Krishan Kumar, SI (Exe) Gokul Ram Meena and ASI (DVR) Dharamvir Singh.

◆ “ Retirement isn't the end of duty. The responsibility to serve and protect society remains”, said DCP / T/ HQ (T-2) Sh S K Singh who presided over the farewell ceremony of the ten July ‘25 retirees.

◆ The ten retirees included SI Surender Singh, SI Rohtash Singh, SI Kaptan Singh, SI Raj Kumar Sharma, SI Shiv Lal, SI Ram Asare Maurya, SI Dinesh Chand, ASI Ranvir Singh, W/ ASI Meera Devi, and HC Shyam S Sharma.

◆ With over 33 years of dedicated service in the Delhi Police, each retiree brings with them a wealth of unmatched experience, having worked through the often chaotic traffic conditions and challenging pollution levels of the capital. Whether managing on-ground operations, handling desk responsibilities, or leading awareness campaigns, their contributions have played a vital role in promoting order, safety, and discipline on Delhi's roads.

I came to Delhi for my daughter's trousseau shopping and was shocked by how long it took to travel from South Delhi to Chandni Chowk and even to designer stores near Qutub. I soon realized the Metro is much faster, cheaper, and more convenient. I recommend using public transport to save time and reduce road congestion.

Roopa Guha, Tourist from Canada

Recently, a motorist hit my cycle from behind even though I was riding at the extreme left roadside. Instead of apologizing, he abused and slapped me. I was too shocked to note his car number, and there were no CCTV cameras nearby. I wish there were more cycle tracks, better surveillance, and greater empathy for the less privileged.

Lal Bahadur Das, Gardener

I came from a small village of Tripura to participate in a fair at Dilli Haat. Even though I have traveled abroad as well, I find Delhi's heavy traffic overwhelming. I often had to wait long to cross roads, with vehicles ignoring signals and even jumping red lights. I hope Delhi adopts proper pedestrian crossing, and people start following traffic rules.

Lalrinmawii Reang, Craftswoman from Tripura

I request the Delhi Traffic Police to install clearer directional signs around AIIMS and Safdarjung hospitals, as the current ones confuse outsiders. Also, action is needed to stop people from hanging clothes and jumping over road dividers near AIIMS.

Amit, AC Technician

As a Safal Franchise owner, I face daily delays due to long queues at toll plazas where our supply vehicles get stuck. I urge Delhi Traffic Police, MCD, Gurugram Traffic Police and other authorities to ease border congestion. I also request strict action against wrong-side driving, especially during peak hours, as objecting to such violations often leads to aggression by violators. Lastly, app-based delivery riders like those from Blinkit and Zepto should be regulated to prevent overspeeding and reckless driving.

Dear Delhites,

I begin by wholeheartedly seconding and thanking Hon'ble Chief Minister of Delhi for lending her powerful voice to Delhi's road safety efforts through the impactful 'Helmet Wearing Consequences' campaign. Her call to display patriotism by following traffic rules and fulfilling civic duties is both timely and inspiring. "Accidents happen suddenly, but wearing a helmet and fastening its strap is in our control," she rightly said at the campaign's launch.

Responding to her appeal, Delhi Traffic Police's Road Safety Cell has intensified on-ground checks and public awareness drives. In July 2025 alone, over 77,447 two-wheeler riders were challaned for not wearing helmets, the third highest traffic offence committed by Delhites after Improper Parking and Driving without PUC.

July'25 also witnessed 4638 four-wheeler drivers being fined for not wearing seat belts. These figures are disappointing—and preventable. Two simple steps taken before a journey begins can be the difference between life and death. Surely wearing a helmet in case of riding two wheelers and strapping seat belts when driving or travelling in a four wheeler are the least we can do for our safety.

Our traffic personnel are working tirelessly—whether it's raining or the heat is unforgiving. We are present at schools, colleges, hospitals, DTC depots, auto stands, and busy junctions, constantly educating and reminding citizens. But ultimately, it's up to you, the public, to act.

I also extend my deep appreciation to all Delhi Traffic Police personnel who ensured the smooth conduct of the 79th Independence Day celebrations. Every suspicious vehicle was checked, every restriction enforced. Our special bike rally with over 100 motorcycles and the distribution of over 200 National flags turned the roads into a celebration of patriotism.

Let's now extend that same spirit to the way we drive—responsibly, safely, and with respect for rules. That is true patriotism in action.
